Old Ghost Zinfandel represents the finest Old Vine Zinfandel Klinker Brick produces each year. The name is derived from the Tule Fog rising from the ground during winter, shrouding leafless vines in fog creating a ghostly appearance.

Hand-harvested from 100+ year old, dry-farmed vineyards yielding less than one ton per acre, these ancient vines produce thicker skinned grapes, increasing concentration and texture in the finished wine. In the winery, we gently crush grapes directly into neutral oak for fermentation before aging in French and American barrels for 18 months prior to bottling.

An intense nose of vanilla, caramel and botanicals enhance full-bodied, luscious flavors of boysenberry and cherry. Layers of dried herbs and cigar box lead to a core of mild tannins with a long, rich textured finish.
